DISCOVERY

The Amalfi Coast. Drive along the serpentine coastline known as the Amalfi Coast to the town of Amalfi. See Piazza del Duomo and the cathedral before cruising to Positano, perched on the side of a coastal mountain. Take a walking tour and enjoy free time.

Mozzarella di Bufala and Paestum.

Visit a dairy farm, where creamy Mozzarella di Bufala is made from the milk of the water buffalo raised there. Explore Paestum, the Greco-Roman city abandoned in the ninth century and lost for 1,000 years. Its three Doric temples are some of the best-preserved Greek ruins outside of Greece.

Naples. Tour this busy port city and visit the National Archaeological Museum to see its extensive collection of Greek and Roman antiquities.

Pompeii and Herculaneum. Step back in time in two towns devastated by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius. See activities of daily life and the local culture that were preserved in mud and ash.

Sorrento. Built atop a coastal cliff, Sorrento has been heralded by poets for its beauty. Pastel-hued houses, landscaped gardens and groves of lemon trees converge in a portrait of Italian charm. Stroll down the Corso Italia and Via San Cesareo.

Ravello. Visit exquisite Villa Rufolo, known for its beautiful gardens, unique Arabesque architecture and incredible views of the Amalfi Coast. The villa inspired Wagner to complete the second act of the opera "Parsifal."

Ravello Gardens

ENRICHMENT

Campania. Delve into the past of this history-rich region.

Meet the People. Engage in thoughtful discussion with local restaurateurs in Paestum and their staff to learn about life in Campania today.

Archaeological Wonders. Learn about the exciting antiquities collection at the National Archaeological Museum in Naples before your visit.

Mount Vesuvius. Examine the intertwined history of the volcano and the cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum.

Italy Today. Discuss the current affairs shaping contemporary Italy.
